

The first meeting of the HSEP in the academic year

Today, the first meeting of the VIFS took place in the academic year in a renewed composition and with a new leadership.

Of the important points, the following issues were discussed:

- vaccination of workers and students.
- distribution of allowances.
- election of delegates and members to the IE&T Academic Council.