

The Russian Science Foundation highly appreciated the developments of polytechnics

We are happy for our colleagues and graduate students - participants in scientific developments!

Experts of the Russian Science Foundation highly appreciated the annual report and allocated new funding for the continuation of scientific developments and research to the associate professor of the Higher School of Engineering and Physics Roman Georgievich Burkovsky and his team of employees and students!